GRAND KNIGHT'S COLUMN

By Bill Nahorn III

Greetings Brothers!

We had a successful January with our Crab Dinner, chaired by Bro. Dennis Raio, and our first 5th Sunday Rosary.

Dennis and his merry band of Knights and many wives and others set up the room, decorated, set the tables, cooked the fare, sold libation, dished up the dinner, served and replenished the tables, sold tickets, cleaned the kitchen, cleared the tables, and after all the activity, many danced the night away. Fun, food, and drink were enjoyed by all. Thank you Dennis and all your crew.

Our fifth Sunday Rosary started a bit slow. Deacon Bill shared a very inspiring Rosary. Thank you Deacon Bill for you time. I would like to invite each brother and his family to our next 5th Sunday Rosary on April 30, 2017.

Please keep in mind our up-coming events for February: The Fourth Degree and the San Joaquin Chapter will have Valentines dinners.

We are gearing up for our annual St. Patrick's Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner in March. Our committee is looking for help. Please spend some time and lessen the tasks on others. Please call me, GK Bill Nahorn III, at (209) 474-0200

I wish all Brothers and their families a very happy and loving St. Valentines Day.

DECEMBER PANCAKE BREAKFAST

Attendance was good at the December 4th Pancake Breakfast despite a cold early winter morning. Led by Brother Peter McCormick, the following brother Knights lent a hand in preparing and serving the breakfast:

Matthew Hymes

José Tarango

Joe Mingram

Joe Telena

Ken Ogella

Elvin Tyler (sausages)

Paul Shane

Tom Vidulich

Manning the admissions table were Paul Jacobs and GK Bill Nahorn III.

The Daughters of Isabella held a Bake Sale at the Breakfast.

The raffle award basket was made by Helen Mingram, and won by Carol Quijada.

There was no Pancake Breakfast in January as the first Sunday of the month fell on New Year's Day, and we were nursing hangovers from New Year's Eve. The next Pancake Breakfast is scheduled for Sunday, February 5, after the 7:00 AM and 8:45 AM Masses, which should give us enough time to get sober.

SAN FRANCISCO WALK FOR LIFE

From An Interview with Kathy & Robert Chinchio

On the morning of Saturday, January 21, at 7:00 AM, a bus filled with parishioners from Presentation, Our Lady of Guadalupe, and Ascension parishes headed to San Francisco for the 2017 Walk for Life. Fr. Suresh accompanied the group. The bus arrived at St. Mary's Cathedral at 9:30 AM, where a special Mass was celebrated by Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone. The Mass was beautiful, with a special section reserved for the Knights of Columbus.

After the Mass, we headed to Civic Center Plaza to hear various speakers and peruse the information tables.

We then gathered at the Asian Art Museum at 1:00 PM, and met up with the rest of the marchers at 1:30 PM. Among the marchers were children, college students, and people from as far away as Oregon. We marched up Market Street to Justin Herman Plaza, on the Embarcadero, praying the rosary along the way. We then boarded the bus for the return trip to Stockton, and arrived back at Presentation around 5:00 PM.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

About 55 members with their wives and families gathered on the evening of December 14, 2016 in the St. Joachim Room for the Council's annual Christmas Party. While there were plenty of desserts, there was only one turkey and a few salads, due to a miscommunications error. The later arrivals had desserts for dinner. Next Christmas we will do a better job of providing adequate food.

A BIG KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS "THANK YOU"

Thank you to the Knights and their spouses that wrapped and delivered the gifts to the senior citizens this past Christmas season, especially Gil and Sylvia Cisneros, Wilfred DeCoite, Jesse Martin, Joe and Helen Mingram, Bill Nahorn III and his wife Marji, Emanuel & Rosemary Ponte, Dennis and Cynthia Raio, Joe and Cynthia Telena, and Freddie Vidrio with his wife, Samantha, and son. You made Christmas a little nicer. Thank you to the Council for providing the money for this project these past 26 years. And a special Thank you to my wife, Sharon, for purchasing the gifts. —Roger Roman

SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO TOWN!

On a cold Saturday morning of December 17, 2016, Brother Ed Hendrickson donned his Santa suit, and played Santa Claus for the children of the Food Pantry clients. Though a couple of little ones were too scared to approach him, the rest of the children (and more than a few adults) eagerly sat on his lap and whispered their Christmas wishes to him. One little boy returned a second time to deliver a letter containing his Christmas wishes to Santa. The number of children attending was small, about 20. Good work Ed! Also, I'd like to especially thank Bill and Susan Loyko for asking me to take the photos of Santa and the children.
