GRAND KNIGHT’S COLUMN

By Bill Nahorn III

Hello and Blessings to all my Brothers and friends,

With the past April showers Our Lord blessed us with, the May flowers are a’ poppin, we are on our way to a beautiful and colorful spring.

Our Risen Lord by sacrificing His Life has provided us eternal life and the Eucharistic way to attain our eternal life. May the bountiful Easter Blessings of this season blanket and care for each you throughout the coming year. And I hope all had a Blessed Easter.

I would like to thank all the Knights that helped during our Holy Week activities. We had a wonderful group of dedicated Knights that assisted at the Easter Vigil. I’d like to thank all of our brothers that made the Easter Vigil very special for all that attended. This includes Bros. Wil DeCoite, Al Espinor, Bill Kichline, Jaime Nunes, Ken Ogella, Michael Ornelas, John Rayray, and Tom Stein. I hope that I didn’t miss anyone.

I would like to invite all Brothers to attend the next few meetings. We have some important business issues upcoming.

The Knights of Columbus State Convention is May 18 – 21, 2017. It will be in San Diego this year

We had our 2nd Fifth Sunday Rosary on April 30, 2017. It was attended by Brothers and wives and uplifting for all. Thanks to all that attended.

May the Grace of the Redeemed Christ be with all of my Brothers.

TWO FRIENDS

Two friends were walking through the desert. At some point during the journey they had an argument, and one friend slapped the other one in the face. The one who got slapped was hurt, but without saying anything, wrote in the sand: "Today my best friend slapped me in the face."

They kept on walking, until they found an oasis, where they decided to take a bath. The one who had been slapped got stuck in the mire and started drowning, but the friend saved him. After he recovered from the near drowning he wrote on a stone: "Today my best friend saved my life."

The friend who had slapped and saved his best friend asked him, "After I hurt you, you wrote in the sand, and now you write on a stone. Why?"

The other friend replied, "When someone hurts us, we should write it down in sand, where winds of forgiveness can erase it away. But, when someone does something good for us, we must engrave it in stone where no wind can ever erase it."

Learn to write your hurts in the sand, and to carve your benefits in stone.

They say it takes a minute to find a special person, an hour to appreciate them, a day to love them, but then an entire lifetime to forget them.

GREAT TRUTHS THAT LITTLE CHILDREN HAVE LEARNED:

- No matter how hard you try, you can't baptize cats.
- When your Mom is mad at your Dad, don't let her brush your hair.
- If your sister hits you, don't hit her back; you'll always hit the second person.
- Never ask your 3-year old brother to hold a tomato.
- You can't trust dogs to watch your food.
- Don't sneeze when someone is cutting your hair.
- Never hold a Dust-Buster and a cat at the same time!
- You can't hide a piece of broccoli in a glass of milk.
- Don't wear polka-dot underwear under white shorts.
- The best place to be when you're sad is Grandpa's lap.
