SPIRITUAL ADVISER'S COLUMN

By Deacon Dr. Benjamin Joe, PharmD

Philip Rivers, quarterback for the Los Angeles Chargers, is well known for his Catholic faith and love of family. Last month on the Dan Patrick Show, people were more interesting in the discussion about Rivers' children rather than football. The question was how many children did Rivers have. The answer was 8 i.e., 6 girls and 2 boys. The next question was: Are you done? The answer was no and his wife was all in on it too.

Rivers and his wife, Tiffany's enthusiasm for a large family was considered insanity. While people cannot fathom their desire to have more children, the couple has consistently shown commitment to life, to their faith, and their family.

Patrick Madrid, Catholic theologian and apologist, and his wife, Nancy, have 11 children and 12 grandchildren.

Published by Brother Chuck Argus, Co-owner, Pak Mail US 102, 4719 Quail Lakes Dr. Ste. G, Stockton, CA 95207-5267, phone: 209-478-9827, email: us102@pakmail.org, web: pakmailstockton.com

They also experienced the “look of scorn” from those who disapprove of the family size. Same question: “Are you done?”; “Are you crazy”; and “Don’t you have a TV” are some of the other comments. Nancy looks upon this as a full fulfillment of marriage and a blessing.

My wife, Tracy, and I have had similar experiences. Occasionally there are looks of dismay or shaking of heads. Most of the time, it is “Are you done?” We would graciously say, “We are open to more depending on what God has in store for us.” You see, brothers, after thinking we were not going to have any children and suffering multiple miscarriages, we are very thankful and blessed with what God has bestowed upon us. We are pro-life and we trust God

October is Respect Life and Pro-Life month. This is not just about the life of a baby but about all of life from the womb to the tomb. Hopefully, you have participated in some works or activities promoting or educating others about this. Thank you Bobby Chinchiolo for your council work. Also thanks to Roger Roman for his past work in this committee. Much kudos also to the Respect Life ministry as well. Next big event is the Walk for Life in January 2019. A wonderful event. My wife and I walked it 6 months pregnant with the triplets. A challenge to you all. Stay tuned.

In brotherhood and In Christ Our Savior,
—Deacon Ben

MEMORIAL MASS Thursday, Nov. 14, 7:00 PM

In lieu of the November 14th General Meeting there will be a Memorial Mass for Deceased Members at Presentation at 7:00 PM. Msgr. Silva, pastor of Presentation will preside over the Mass. This is the first Mass for our Brother Knights who have passed on, and this month is the perfect time to remember and pray for them. We’d like as many members as possible to attend. So please put this on your calendars. As mentioned in the Grand Knight’s Column, there will be light refreshments served after the Mass.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING BOXES Monday, Nov. 19, 6:00 PM

We will be assembling and delivering Thanksgiving Boxes to those in need on Monday, November 19th, at 6.00 PM in the Saints Ann and Joachim Rooms. This is an annual event: the Council gives each household a gift certificate to purchase a turkey or other meats for the dinner, and the members purchase the rest of the items for the dinners out of their own pockets.

The items are then assembled into boxes and delivered by the members to those who don’t otherwise receive aid.

ANNUAL PASTA DINNER

On a cool Saturday evening of October 27th, we put on our annual Pasta Dinner. Attendance was good, nearly filling Guadalupe Hall.

New member Thomas Duran, who once owned a restaurant, made the red meat sauce, which we mixed with capellini. We also served pesto with fettuccine. We also made a wonder mixed salad and French bread.

Once again, Head Chefs Peter McCormick and Dennis Abeyta led the crew. Assisting them were: Jim Beahm—kitchen support; Bobby Chinchiolo—server; Tom Cisper—tickets table; Paul Jacobs—tickets table; Bill Kichline—kitchen support and server; Bob McKay—raffle and server; Bill Nahorn III—set up and overall support; Ken Ogella—overall support; Emanuel Ponte—admissions table; Dennis Raio—master of ceremonies; John Rayray—raffle; Ed Sullivan—bar and server; and John Tucker—bar manager.

NOVEMBER PANCAKE BREAKFAST

A warm fall morning greeted dinners at the “World Famous” Pancake Breakfast on October 7th. While the turnout for the first seating was light, the number of diners at the second seating more than made up for it.

Head chefs Peter McCormick and Dennis Abeyta were assisted by the following Brothers: Dennis Abeyta—Tang; Tom Cisper—admissions table; Thomas Duran—serving; Paul Jacobs—admissions table; David Lagesse—eggs, sausages, and serving; Joe Mingram—eggs and serving; GK Bill Nahorn III—setup and cleanup; FS Ken Ogella—Pasta Dinner tickets; John Rayray—setup, eggs, sausages, beverage, and serving; José Tarango—setup; Stan Trent—raffle; John Tucker—setup and serving; and Elvin Tyler—sausages.

As shown in the last photo, Dennis Abeyta made a special giant pancake for Roger Roman.

Gail Gulick-Tucker made the raffle basket, this time with an Italian theme. The basket was won by Lucy Valverde, who was not present.

Mike DeToro announced that he received a Thank You note from Chuck Sasso’s family along with $60.00 cash. Noting that Chuck loved being in the kitchen, Mike donated the $60.00 to the Kitchen Fund.

The next Pancake Breakfast will be on Sunday, November 4, 2018, after the 7:00 and 8:45 Masses. The proceeds from this Breakfast, as well as December’s Breakfast, will be donated to our Coats for Kids project.

BISHOP'S BURSE DINNER

On Thursday, September 20th, at the Bishop's Burse Dinner, the San Joaquin Chapter presented Bishop Emeritus Steven Blair with funds from all the councils for his favorite cause: educating seminarians for the Diocese of Stockton. The Dinner was held at the Modesto Elks Lodge #1282. The dinner was a wonderful menu of roasted chicken breasts and center-cut pork loins.

After a hair-raising ride through the back roads of Stockton and Modesto, we were joined by GK Bill and Marji Nahorn, Emanuel and Rosemary Ponte, Dr. Ned Hand, MD, and Bob and Sharon McKay. Afterwards, we had a very nice meeting with Bishop Blaire. Fortunately, the return trip was an easy right turn directly onto Hwy. 99 North.

RAFFLE “WINNERS”

The “winners” of the meeting raffle were Xavier Contreras, at the October 12th Meeting, and Ed Hendrickson, at the October 24th Meeting, respectively. As neither member was present, the pot rolls over to $140 for the November 28th Meeting.

Please make an effort to attend the Meetings. We would like to see you there, and you might walk out with free cash!
