GRAND KNIGHT'S COLUMN

By Bill Nahorn III

Dear Brothers,

Merry Christmas to you and your families. May this season bring you warmth, happiness, laughter, and love. Praise our Lord for He is born.

We had a wonderful Memorial mass in memory of our Brothers. There were about 60 brothers and wives that attended. A light meal and beverages were served after mass.

Our annual Christmas Dinner will be on Dec. 12th in the St. Anne and St. Joachim rooms. We will begin at 6:00°PM and dinner will be served at 7:00°PM. Please see the flyer on Page 2 for more details.

Brothers, our ticket sales for the Crab Dinner has taken off. We will be selling the tickets after all the masses on Saturday, Dec. 29th and Sunday, Dec. 30th and after all the masses on Saturday, Jan. 5th and Sunday, Jan. 6th. Please take a few minutes to help your council. This IS our major fund raiser of the year! Please help us before and after the mass that you attend. We need about 5 or 6 brothers at each mass. It is very important to have good coverage after the masses. This would also be an ideal time to purchase the tickets that you need.

While I'm asking for help, we need help in many of the activities that take place during our dinner event. Give Brother Ed Hendrickson at (209) 649-1013, or Brother John Tucker, at (209) 639-9696, a call and see what excitement will await you. Thank you.

Have a wonderful and Blessed Christmas.

May the spirit of this season move you to JOY!

Peace,
Bill

SPIRITUAL ADVISER'S COLUMN

By Deacon Dr. Benjamin Joe, PharmD

Hope everyone had a blessed and awesome Thanksgiving with family and friends. God has blessed us with so much and we pray for those that are less fortunate and without. May God always provide for their necessities and keep them safe and warm.

As our liturgical year comes to an end, it begins our next liturgical year with the season of Advent. Advent is a season of 4 weeks in the Church Year devoted to preparation for the Coming of Christ at Christmas. The name "Advent" comes from the Latin word adventus which means "coming". As such, it is the liturgical anticipating the Adventus Domini, the "coming of the Lord".

The Eternal Word, who is outside of time, became incarnate in time, thereby making all time sacred. In the season of Advent, we await the coming of Christ on all levels of time: in the past as a babe in the stable of Bethlehem; in the present as grace in our souls; and in the future as the Judge at the end of time.

Published by Brother Chuck Argus, Co-owner, Pak Mail US 102, 4719 Quail Lakes Dr. Ste. G, Stockton, CA 95207-5267, phone: 209-478-9827, email: us102@pakmail.org, web: pakmailstockton.com

The season is filled with preparation and anticipation. Everyone is getting ready for Christmas with shopping, decorating, cooking, baking, and cleaning. Sometimes we get so wrapped up in the material preparations that we lose sight of the real reason for our activities and for the season. Christians are reminded to preserve the spiritual focus of Christmas amidst the secular focus of consumerism and commercialism of society.

In our hustle and bustle of the season, let us strive to keep Advent a season of waiting and longing, of conversion and hope, concentrating on the love and humility of God in taking on flesh of the Virgin Mary. When we shop and cook, let us remember to buy or prepare something for the poor. When we are decking the halls of our homes, let us not to forget to prepare a peaceful place in our hearts for our Savior who has come to dwell.

May God continue to bless you this Advent and Christmas season. May the Savior come and kindle your hearts with his light and his love.

Happy Advent and Merry Christmas!
—Deacon Ben

NOVEMBER MEETING RAFFLE “WINNER”

The “winner” of the raffle at the November 28th Meeting was Steve Carpenter. As he was not present, the pot rolls over to $145.00 for the January 9, 2019 Meeting.

You must be present to win. We encourage as many members as can to attend the meetings. It’s a good way to win some quick and easy cash!

NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER PAN-CAKE BREAKFASTS

A wonderful mild-fall morning greeted diners at the “World Famous” Pancake Breakfast on November 4th. In contrast, a chilly early-winter morning awaited them on December 2nd. At both breakfasts, the attendance at the first seating was light, while the second seating more than made up for it.

Head Chef Peter McCormick led the crew at both breakfasts. Assisting him were the following dedicated Brother Knights who consistently help to make the breakfasts a success: Tom Cisper and Paul Jacobs—admissions & raffle tickets table; Gil Cisneros—set up, server, and clean up; David Lagesse—raffle; Joe Mingram—server; GK Bill Nahorn III—food purchase, set up, and overseer; Ken Ogella—Crab Dinner tickets and assistant overseer; John Rayray—set up, eggs, and server; José Tarango—server; Stan Trent—server; Elvin Tyler—sausages, and Tom Vidulich—kitchen support. Our tireless basket maker, Gail Gulick-Tucker, made the raffle gift basket for the November breakfast. We gave her a rest for the December breakfast by raffling off a Fritz and Floyd Christmas Platter.

The proceeds from both breakfasts are earmarked for our Coats for Kids project.

The next Pancake Breakfast will be on Sunday, January 6, 2019 after the 7:00 and 8:45 Masses.

In lieu of our regular meeting, we held the first Memorial Mass for our deceased brother knights on November 14th. A list of our deceased members was displayed at the back of the Church. With about 60 Knights and their families in attendance, Msgr. Silva celebrated the Mass, assisted by Deacon Ben Joe and altar server Victor Cadenas. Brother Knights Stan Trent was the cross bearer, John Tucker was the Reader, and John Rayray and Jim Beahm presented the Offertory gifts.

Deacon Ben wore vestments that were purchased by the Knights, and displays the Order's logo on its back.

After Mass, we met in the St. Francis room for a light meal and refreshments.
