GRAND KNIGHT'S COLUMN

By Bill Nahorn III

Dear Brothers,

April is here, and Easter is very near. May Our risen Lord bless you and your family during the Easter season and the coming year.

We will have elections for officers for our 2019-2020 Columbian year. Please attend the next meetings to nominate and elect your new board of officers. This is your council, you owe it to yourself to exercise your right to vote and take part in directing the upcoming year.

Congratulations to Freddie Vidrio and his Corned Beef team for a great dinner. Everyone had a wonderful time at the well-orchestrated dinner. Everything was tastefully prepared by our kitchen staff led by Pete McCormick. Both our bar and coffee bar were well attended. Many of our guests were lucky and walked out with one of the door prizes that were generously donated by the brothers.

I would also like to thank all our brothers and guests that helped clean up and that did the linens.

A big thank you for all the brothers that returned at 6am the next day to prepare our monthly World Famous Pancake Breakfast. It was one of our best attended breakfasts. Now is the time to be part of the next breakfast. Yes, This Sunday will be our April breakfast. We could use YOUR help. We begin at 6am and finish around 11-11:30am. We need your help any time during the event.

We need 10-15 Knights to help set up about 600 chairs at St. Mary's High School this Friday (4/5/19) at 9PM. Yes, that is 9 PM. (St. Mary's is hosting a B Ball Turney that will end at 9pm.) The chairs are needed early Sat. morning for the diocesan ministry fair.

PRAYER FOR INCREASED MEMBERSHIP

Lord, we pray for a fruitful increase in the membership of our Knight's of Columbus Catholic Men's organization.

Through your grace, may our words and actions draw many young and saintly men from all walks of life.

May they be inspired by the virtues of our founder, Father Michael McGivney and through the intercession of Your Blessed Mother, may we welcome them into our councils.

We ask this in the Name of our Lord, Jesus Christ,

In union with the Holy Spirit. Amen.

SPIRITUAL ADVISER'S COLUMN

By Deacon Dr. Benjamin Joe, PharmD

How had your Lenten journey go? Hope you found more energy, more meaning, and new growth during this time. But at the end, it goes back to the beginning, that is, obedience. The following is a good reflection of it:

Scripture

"But take care and watch yourselves closely, so as neither to forget the things that your eyes have seen nor to let them slip from your mind all the days of your life; make them known to your children and your children's children."

Deuteronomy 4:9

Reflection

If there is any word that disturbs people in our society, it is the word obedience. When we look for definitions of the verb "to obey" in the dictionary, we find that it means to comply with a command or direction, to do what someone says, to carry out the orders of someone in authority. In our hyper-individualistic world, we rankle at the thought of someone imposing his or her will on our behavior. This influences our reaction to the readings from Scripture which call us to obey God and his teachings.

In the languages of both Old and New Testaments, the verb "to obey" means "to listen to." Obedience in the Bible then has to do with listening to the call of God with an open heart and giving a wholehearted response. Obedience is a heart to heart relationship with God.

So when we ask ourselves the question "what is God calling us to do in our lives?" we find in the Old Testament the basic statutes and ordinances God is calling us to follow, most importantly the Ten Commandments and the important commentaries we find on them from the prophets. God is calling us to understand the centrality of making him the center of our lives, which we act out in caring for our sisters and brothers.

In Matthew 5:17-19, Jesus also tells us clearly that these are his most important priorities. We are to listen to who God is calling us to be as his disciples and recognize that through Jesus, the Father's deepest desires for us will be fulfilled.

May God Bless You,
Deacon Ben

28TH ANNUAL TRIVIA BEE

The 28th Annual Trivia Bee is scheduled for Friday, April 26, at 5:00 PM in the Stockton Arena. According to Jack Jacobs, we will be fielding a team, though I do not know who will be on the team. It's a fun event, so I hope that you will attend and cheer on the team.

The cost is $30 per person, which includes dinner, before April 12, and $35 thereafter.

CORNER BEEF AND CABBAGE DINNER

Though I was unable to attend the Dinner, Gil Cisneros provided the pictures and who helped out. Without him I would not be able to write this article, and to him I owe a very big Thank You!

The following Brother Knights assisted Freddie Vidrio and Peter McCormick in putting on another successful Dinner: Jim Beahm, Randy Burns, Tom Cisper, Paul Jacobs, Bob & Sharon McKay, Joe Mingram, Bill & Marji Nahorn, John & Sylvia Rayray, Rick Riemann, Steve & Delores Shelton, Ed Sullivan, and John & Gail Tucker.

MARCH'S PANCAKE BREAKFAST

The Pancake Breakfast was the next day, on March 3rd. Though tired from yesterday evening's Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner, the following Brother Knights rallied to once again put on a successful Breakfast: Jim Beahm, Randy Burns, Tom Cisper, Ed Hendrickson, Paul Jacobs, Deacon Benjamin Joe, Will Mar, Joe Mingram,

Bill & Marji Nahorn, Dennis Raio, John Rayray, John Tucker, Elvin Tyler, and Mike Van Hollebeke. A number of Brother Knights helped out at both the Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner and the Pancake Breakfast

Mike Van Hollebeke belongs to the Cascade Council in Everite, Washington. He was on his way to watch Spring Training, and stopped by to help.

There were also teen volunteers: Anthony Espino, Andre Garcia, Bryan Ibarra, and Julian Maya.

The first seating was light, but the second seating made up for it.

History was made with Marji Nahorn being the first woman to make pancakes at the Breakfast!

I wish to thank Gil Cisneros for supplying the pictures and those who helped out at the Breakfast.
