GRAND KNIGHT'S COLUMN

By Bill Nahorn III

Dear Brothers,

June, the month of Father's Day, School is out, Vacations, and time to dust off the ole BBQ. Let us not forget about our Risen Lord and thank Him for a successful year, good grades, and our health. As you embark on your summer vacation start by saying a rosary for a safe time with your family, whether it's the two of you or a car full. Bless all of you on all of your endeavors this summer.

We have several things going on this month. At our first meeting (6/12/19) you will be called upon to cast your ballot for this year's council officers. We had our first reading of proposed officers in May and will elect them June 12th. Please join us and cast your important ballot.

Our monthly World Famous Pancake Breakfast will be this Sunday, June 2nd. Plan to attend, have a wonderful breakfast, meet your friends, or come out and lend a hand to the breakfast crew headed by Bro. Pete McCormick. Either way you will have a good time.

Our Bro. Ernie Phillips' memorial service will be held on July 1st, at Presentation Church. And on another sad note, Bro. Stan Trent passed away on Sunday,

May 26th. (See more information elsewhere in the newsletter.)

Our installation of this Columbian years' officers will be held during our July 24th OPEN DINNER MEETING. To ensure enough food for all please call the Dinner Ticket Reservation Hotline at 209.933.1933 and make reservations. Doors will open at 6PM, Installation at 7PM, and dinner will follow. All Brothers and their Ladies are invited. Please call so we have a correct count of those attending.

Peace to All,

Vivat Jesus,
Bill Nahorn III, GK

SPIRITUAL ADVISER'S COLUMN

By Deacon Dr. Benjamin Joe, PharmD

Football Matt Birk Stays Center on Christ

Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Raven center Matt Birk came from a devout Catholic family. Being Catholic and taking the faith seriously meant a lot. In Matt's 18 years at home, he never missed Sunday Mass.

Everything changed when he went to college at Harvard. He got caught up in the worldly things and he felt that he was too sophisticated for religion. His mindset got worse when he started playing in the NFL. But then he met his future wife, Adrianna, who set a loving example of faith that helped him change his heart.

One of the things he learned from the Catholic faith that applies to marriage, football, and any aspect of life is to appreciate discipline. Self-indulgence seems to be best for us but it only weakens us and leaves us unhappy. Self-denial appears to be worst for us, but it strengthens us and makes us truly happy.

Jesus said if anyone who wants to be his follower must deny oneself, take up one's cross, and follow Him. The way of the cross is the only way to be a true Christian. It helps us to be the best version of ourselves.

As the season of Easter is coming to an end, let us open hearts to the Holy Spirit who comes on Pentecost. May He fill your hearts with the fire of His love. And may you go forth to love and serve the Lord and one another.

Blessings,
Deacon Ben

If you will be attending the Third Degree Exemplification, please review the Ten Commandments, the Act of Contrition, and Acts of Faith, Hope, and Charity, as the degree officials may quiz you.

PREVENTING SUICIDE

Lecturer Dennis Raio arranged to have Leslie Young, Director of American Suicide Prevention, speak on preventing suicide, at the May 22nd Meeting. The Meeting was an Open Meeting, with about 30 in attendance. Ms. Young spoke for 20 minutes and answered questions.

Special thanks for Dennis for organizing the talk and taking the pictures and supplying the synopsis for the Newsletter.

RAFFLE “WINNERS”

The “winners” of the meeting raffle were José Tarango at the April 24th Meeting and John Olive at the May 8th Meeting. IN MEMORIAM

Stanley (Stan) C. Trent

Stan passed away suddenly on Sunday, May 26. He joined the Council on May 13, 2017. Stan was very active in our Council. With his big husky voice, he was the MC for our fundraising dinners. He also helped out at other activities, such as the Carnation Giveaway, when he could. No arrangements were available at press time. Rest easy Stan, we really miss you!

Ernie Phillips

The Memorial Mass for Ernie Phillips will be held on Monday, July 1, 2019, at 10:30 AM at Presentation. We encourage all members who can to please attend for Ernie and Yvonne.
